PURPOSE

This operating procedure provides guidance to promote consistency in the privileges afforded to offenders based on the security level of the Department of Corrections institution. Provision is made for institutions to request variances based on institution specific program and mission requirements.

PROCEDURE

- I. Security Level Assignment
  - A. Offenders incarcerated in DOC institutions, once classified, are assigned to a security level based on their risk to others and to the secure and orderly operations of an institution in accordance with Operating Procedure 830.2, Security Level Classification.
  - B. Each institution is designated to house one or multiple security level offenders.
    1. The minimum and maximum privileges authorized for general population offenders varies based on each institutions' designated security level. As the security level of the institution decreases, the privileges offered increases.
    2. For institutions that are designated for multiple security levels, offender privileges provided should be in accordance with Attachment 3, Privilege Level Designation of Multi-Level Institutions.
  - C. Each institution is expected to provide offender privileges in accordance with the institution's security level designation unless the institution has an approved Privilege Variance Request 801_F8.
  - D. Restrictive Housing Unit privileges will be in accordance with Operating Procedure 841.4, Restrictive Housing Units.
  - E. Privileges for Security Level 6 and S institutions will be in accordance with the Restrictive Housing Reduction Step Down Program, approved by the Chief of Corrections Operations and consistent with applicable ACA Standards.
  - F. Reception Centers and Residential Programs may restrict or enhance the privileges available in accordance with their institutional mission and/or program model.
  - G. Privileges for Cadre offenders will be as specified for Security Level 1 institutions unless otherwise indicated.
- II. Privileges by Security Level
  - A. The privileges afforded to offenders housed in Security Level W-5 institutions are as follows:

- B. Additional privileges as listed on Attachment 1, Privileges by Security Level-Male Institutions, and Attachment 2, Privileges by Security Level-Female Institutions, are available based on the security level of the institution and offender behavior.
1. Offender Pictures (i.e. visitation, offender picture projects, etc.)
    - a. Each participating institution will establish the rules, procedures, and process to access offender picture services
    - b. Picture tickets must be marked with the name and number of the offender who purchased the ticket.
    - c. Picture tickets are transferrable between facilities.

- i. Offenders who purchased a picture ticket and are transferred prior to use will be permitted to use their picture tickets at any institution that offers picture taking services.
    - ii. When an offender transfers to an institution that does not provide picture taking services, the offender will be permitted to keep their picture tickets.
    - iii. Institutions are not required to refund offenders for unused picture tickets.
  - d. The Facility Unit Head should designate one employee to be responsible for oversight of the offender picture taking process for the institution; the designated employee must ensure that all offender pictures are reviewed and embedded with the offender's identifying information (institution, offender's name, date and time picture was taken) prior to printing the photograph for offender possession.
    - i. All offender pictures must be taken with a digital camera.
    - ii. The individual responsible for taking offender pictures must maintain a log of all the pictures taken with each offender's name, date, and time of picture documented on the log.
    - iii. The completed log should be forwarded to the employee responsible for embedding the offender's information into the picture.
    - iv. The picture with identifying information must be saved to a folder created for this purpose in "My Pictures" or "Shared Folders".
  - e. All offender pictures should be reviewed for compliance with the institution's rules regarding picture content to include the prohibition of gang signs and symbols prior to distribution to the offender
