AUDIT FINDINGS

NARRATIVE:

The audit of Wise Correctional Unit was conducted on April 22-23, 2015 by Katherine Brown, Certified PREA auditor. An entrance meeting was held with facility staff. The following people were in attendance: Major Jeff Kiser; Major DA Taylor; Lt. K. Scholobohm; Counselor Jennifer Jessie; Counselor Sandy Mullins; Sgt. B Elam; Lt. A Mullins; and Regional PREA Analyst Joey Parks.

Following the entrance meeting I toured the Wise Correctional Unit from 08:30 – 10:30. On the tour with me was, Major Jeff Kiser; Major DA Taylor; Lt. K. Scholobohm; Lt. A. Mullins; Sgt. B. Elam; Regional PREA Analyst Joey Parks. It was noted throughout the tour that PREA related materials were posted, as well as the PREA audit notice was posted in each housing area. I toured the entire facility which consisted of two dorms, two special housing areas, a dining hall, a full service kitchen, industrial laundry, recreational area, programming/classroom, library, case management offices, medical department and commissary area. Other areas toured outside of the facility included the administration building, officer barracks, visitation building, five greenhouses, maintenance shop and general farm buildings. Intakes are received through a secure sally port area with access provided through the Watch Office. Offenders are under constant supervisor of correctional staff that are assigned to various post at the beginning of each shift. Correctional staff have a direct view through the offender housing units. The open living quarters provide each offender with a sleeping area, locker, chair and writing space. Offenders have access to toilets at the front of each dorm and the basement recreational area and a privacy barrier is in place in the areas. Offenders also have access to shower with same type of privacy barriers in place in the basement recreational area.

I asked for a housing listing of all offenders housed at Wise Correctional Unit and randomly selected eleven offenders to interview. I asked for any limited English speaking or hearing/vision impairment offenders to interview. There were no limited English speaking or hearing/vision impaired offenders. I also asked for a shift roster and randomly selected staff to interview.

There was one sexual assault/harassment allegation cases, (within the past year) that had been unsubstantiated.

Wise Correctional Unit does not conduct cross-gender strip searches or cross-gender visual body cavity searches (meaning a search of the anal or genital opening) except in exigent circumstances. In the event a cross gender search is done Wise Correctional Unit documents all cross-gender strip searches and cross-gender visual body cavity searches. There have been no cross gender strip searches performed at Wise Correctional Unit.

Wise Correctional Unit has policies and procedures that enable offenders to shower, perform bodily functions, and change clothing without nonmedical staff of the opposite gender viewing their breasts, buttocks, or genitalia, except in exigent circumstances or when such viewing is incidental to routine cell checks. Such policies and procedures require staff of the opposite gender to announce their presence when entering an offender housing unit.

Wise Correctional Unit has not housed any transgender offenders but does have a policy in place that does not allow the search or physically examine a transgender or intersex offender for the sole purpose of determining the offender’s genital status. If the offender’s genital status is unknown, it is determined during conversations with the offender, by reviewing medical records, or, if necessary, by learning that information as part of a broader medical examination conducted in private by a medical practitioner.

Virginia Department of Corrections trains security staff in how to conduct cross-gender pat-down searches, and searches of transgender and intersex offenders, in a professional and respectful manner, and in the least intrusive manner possible, consistent with security needs.

All offenders are assessed during an intake screening and upon transfer to another facility for risk of being sexually abused by other offenders or sexually abusive toward other offenders.

New arrivals are delivered to Wise on Tuesday and Fridays, usually in the evenings. Intake screenings take place within 24 hours except for Friday's arrival and they are seen within 72 hours of arrival at Wise Correctional Unit.

Wise Correctional Unit uses an objective screening instrument.

The intake screening considers, at a minimum, the following criteria to assess offenders for risk of sexual victimization:

1. Whether the offender has a mental, physical, or developmental disability;
2. The age of the offender;
3. The physical build of the offender;
4. Whether the offender has previously been incarcerated;
5. Whether the offender’s criminal history is exclusively nonviolent;
6. Whether the offender has prior convictions for sex offenses against an adult or child;
7. Whether the offender is or is perceived to be gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, intersex, or gender nonconforming;
8. Whether the offender has previously experienced sexual victimization;
9. The offender’s own perception of vulnerability; and
10. Whether the offender is detained solely for civil immigration purposes.

The initial screening considers prior acts of sexual abuse, prior convictions for violent offenses, and history of prior institutional violence or sexual abuse, as known to Virginia Department of Corrections, in assessing offenders for risk of being sexually abusive.

Within 30 days from the offender’s arrival at Wise Correctional Unit, Wise Correctional Unit reassesses the offender’s risk of victimization or abusiveness based upon any additional, relevant information received by Wise Correctional Unit since the intake screening.

An offender’s risk level is reassessed when warranted due to a referral, request, incident of sexual abuse, or receipt of additional information that bears on the offender’s risk of sexual victimization or abusiveness.

Offenders are not disciplined for refusing to answer, or for not disclosing complete information in response to, questions asked.

Virginia Department of Corrections implements appropriate controls on the dissemination within Wise Correctional Unit of responses to questions asked pursuant to this standard in order to ensure that sensitive information is not exploited to the offender’s detriment by staff or other offenders.

Virginia Department of Corrections makes individualized determinations about how to ensure the safety of each offender.

Wise Correctional Unit has not housed any transgender/intersex offenders however they have policies in place addressing with deciding whether to assign a transgender or intersex offender to a facility for male offenders, and in making other housing and programming assignments, Virginia Department of Corrections considers on a case-by-case basis whether a placement would ensure the offender’s health and safety, and whether the placement would present management or security problems.

Placement and programming assignments for each transgender or intersex offender is reassessed at least twice each year to review any threats to safety experienced by the offender.

A transgender or intersex offender’s own views with respect to his or her own safety are be given serious consideration.

Transgender and intersex offenders are given the opportunity to shower separately from other offenders.

Virginia Department of Corrections does not place lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, or intersex offenders in dedicated facilities, units, or wings solely on the basis of such identification or status, unless such placement is in a dedicated facility, unit, or wing established in connection with a consent decree, legal settlement, or legal judgment for the purpose of protecting such offenders.

No offenders have been placed in involuntary segregation housing.

Offenders at high risk for sexual victimization are not placed in involuntary segregated housing unless an assessment of all available alternatives has been made, and a determination has been made that there is no available alternative means of separation from likely abusers.

Offenders placed in segregated housing for this purpose have access to programs, privileges, education, and work opportunities to the extent possible. If Wise Correctional Unit restricts access to programs, privileges, education, or work opportunities, Wise Correctional Unit documents the opportunities that have been limited, the duration of the limitation; and the reasons for such limitations.

Wise Correctional Unit assigns such offenders to involuntary segregated housing only until an alternative means of separation from likely abusers can be arranged, and such an assignment does not ordinarily exceed a period of 30 days. If involuntary segregated housing assignment is made Wise Correctional Unit clearly documents the basis for Wise Correctional Unit’s concern for the offender’s safety; and the reason why no alternative means of separation can be arranged. Every 30 days a review is performed to determine whether there is a continuing need for separation from the general population.

Virginia Department of Corrections provides multiple internal ways for offenders to privately report sexual abuse and sexual harassment, retaliation by other offenders or staff for reporting sexual abuse and sexual harassment, and staff neglect or violation of responsibilities that may have contributed to such incidents.

Virginia Department of Corrections provides at least one way for offenders to report abuse or harassment to a public or private entity or office that is not part of Virginia Department of Corrections, and that is able to receive and immediately forward offender reports of sexual abuse and sexual harassment to agency officials, allowing the offender to remain anonymous upon request. Virginia Department of Corrections has multiple protection measures, such as housing changes or transfers for offender victims or abusers, removal of alleged staff or offender abusers from contact with victims, and emotional support services for offenders or staff that fear retaliation for reporting sexual abuse or sexual harassment or for cooperating with investigations.

For at least 90 days following a report of sexual abuse, Virginia Department of Corrections monitors the conduct and treatment of offenders or staff who reported the sexual abuse and of offenders who were reported to have suffered sexual abuse to see if there are changes that may suggest possible retaliation by offenders or staff, and act promptly to remedy any such retaliation. When Virginia Department of Corrections conducts its own investigations into allegations of sexual abuse and sexual harassment, it does so promptly, thoroughly, and objectively for all allegations, including third-party and anonymous reports.

Where sexual abuse is alleged, Virginia Department of Corrections uses investigators who have received special training in sexual abuse investigations.

Investigators gather and preserve direct and circumstantial evidence, including any available physical and DNA evidence and any available electronic monitoring data; interview alleged victims, suspected perpetrators, and witnesses; and review prior complaints and reports of sexual abuse involving the suspected perpetrator.

When the quality of evidence appears to support criminal prosecution, Virginia Department of Corrections conducts compelled interviews only after consulting with prosecutors as to whether compelled interviews may be an obstacle for subsequent criminal prosecution and refers all such cases to the S.I.U unit.

The credibility of an alleged victim, suspect, or witness is assessed on an individual basis and is not determined by the person’s status as offender or staff. No agency requires an offender who alleges sexual abuse to submit to a polygraph examination or other truth-telling device as a condition for proceeding with the investigation of such an allegation.

Administrative investigations include efforts to determine whether staff actions or failures to act contributed to the abuse; and are documented in written reports that include a description of the physical and testimonial evidence, the reasoning behind credibility assessments, and investigative facts and findings.

Criminal investigations are documented in a written report that contains a thorough description of physical, testimonial, and documentary evidence and attaches copies of all documentary evidence where feasible.

Substantiated allegations of conduct that appears to be criminal are referred for prosecution.

Virginia Department of Corrections retains all written reports for as long as the alleged abuser is incarcerated or employed by Virginia Department of Corrections, plus five years.

The departure of the alleged abuser or victim from the employment or control of Wise Correctional Unit or agency does not provide a basis for terminating an investigation.

Sanctions are commensurate with the nature and circumstances of the abuse committed, the offender’s disciplinary history, and the sanctions imposed for comparable offenses by other offenders with similar histories.

The disciplinary process considers whether an offender’s mental disabilities or mental illness contributed to his behavior when determining what type of sanction, if any, should be imposed.
