

Virginia Department of Corrections Organizational Chart

Virginia Department of Corrections Organizational Chart (02/20/2026)

Director of Corrections

The Director of Corrections has direct oversight of the Office of Internal Audit, Office of Public Relations, Senior Policy Advisor, Division of Administration, Division of Professional Standards, and the Chief Deputy Director.

Chief Deputy Director

The Chief Deputy Director oversees the Office of Research and Analysis and the following four divisions: Division of Institutions; Division of Community Corrections; Division of Programs, Education, and Reentry Services; and Division of Health Services.

Division of Institutions — Deputy Director

This division includes three Regional Administrators responsible for 24 institutions, 7 field units, and 1 work center. The division also includes Corrections Operations Administration, which oversees Offender Management, Food Services, Buildings and Grounds, and the Emergency Preparedness, Operations and Logistics Unit.

Division of Community Corrections — Deputy Director

This division includes three Regional Administrators responsible for 43 Probation and Parole District Offices and 5 CCAP Facilities. Additional units include the Sex Offender Monitoring Unit and the Voice Verification and Biometrics Unit.

Division of Programs, Education, and Reentry Services — Deputy Director

This division oversees Victim Services, Reentry Services, Case Management Services, Education Services, and Evidence-Based Practices in Facilities and Community.

Division of Health Services — Deputy Director

This division includes Health Services Operations, which oversees Provider Services, Nursing Services, Dental Services, Psychiatry Services, Physical Therapy Services, and Pharmacy Services. The division also includes Mental Health and Wellness.

Division of Administration — Deputy Director

This division oversees Administrative Compliance, Information Technology, Virginia Correctional Enterprises, Agribusiness, Financial Management, Human Resources and Staff Development, Infrastructure and Environmental Services, General Services, and Public Records and FOIA.

Division of Professional Standards — Deputy Director

This division oversees the Office of Law Enforcement Services and the Intelligence Center.